

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THESIS OR DISSERTATION

The student and his/her committee are jointly responsible for seeing to it that the thesis or dissertation follows a correct form of scholarly style and usage as outlined in the Style and Policy Manual available from the School of Graduate Studies. In fulfillment of this responsibility, each member of a candidate's advisory committee must have made his/her criticisms and have seen and approved the changes the student has made to remove the criticisms. Such approval is tentative acceptance of the content, organization, form of expression, style and usage. The approval shall be executed on the Preliminary Approval form and submitted to the School of Graduate Studies by the deadline specified in the graduate catalog. The signed approval is a commitment that the members of the committee will require no major changes of the content, organization, or style after the final copy has been prepared.

Note: A student will not be permitted to graduate unless this completed form is received at the School of Graduate Studies by the deadline specified in the School of Graduate Studies' Academic Calendar. It is the student's responsibility to obtain the committee's approval on this form and file the original with School of Graduate Studies.

Final Deadline for Preliminary Approval is listed in the Dates & Deadlines each semester and in the UND academic catalog.

Notice of Defense for Thesis and Dissertation is due along with the Preliminary Approval form at least two weeks prior to the scheduled oral examination date and on or before the Preliminary Approval deadline. (Doctoral defenses are published in the University Newsletter.)
